Sub: Group 'B' selections of organized departments against 30% LDCE quota to be conducted by DG/NAIR through CBT.

---

The Railway Board have advised the following schedule of written examinations of all the organized departments to be conducted on 20.11.2022 in two shifts in four cities/towns on S.C.Railway through CBT for 30% LDCE quota.

Shift	Posts	City/Town
Morning Shift: 09.30 hrs to 12.30 hrs	AOM, ACM, AME/AWM, ASTE	Secunderabad: Employees of SC Division, HYB Division, LGDS and Headquarters.
Afternoon Shift: 15.30 hrs to 18.30 hrs	APO, AEN	Vijayawada: Employees of Vijayawada Division, Guntur Division and RYPS
		Tirupathi: Employees of Guntakal Division and TPYS.
		Aurangabad: Employees of NED Division.

In order to finalize the panels by middle of December, 2022, the Railway Board have advised to ensure that the following aspects concerning the selection are completed in advance.

- 1) Nomination of Nodal Officer in SAG (ADRM) for each exam city/town;
- 2) Finalization of APARs of last five years i.e., 2017-18 to 2021-22 of all the employees attending the written examinations (Lists of eligible employees post-wise has already been furnished to all concerned);

In view of the above, it is requested to advise the details of the nomination of Nodal Officer (Name, Designation, Mobile Number and E-Mail ID) of SC, BZA, GTL & NED divisions. It is also requested to advise the concerned officers to keep ready the finalized APARs of five years of each of the employees who is attending the written examination duly asking the officer concerned to give a feed back on the finalization of APARs by 07.11.2022 to enable to advise the Railway Board as desired by them.

In view of large number of employees of all the departments taking part in the written examination, it is desirable that no major activity is planned around day of the written examination i.e., 20.11.2022.

This issues with the approval of PCPO.
